On 30 December, James was baptized in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Algoma with Howard Harmann and Violet Thiry as his sponsors. James attended St. Paul's Christian Day School and graduated from Algoma High School. He continued his education at Milton College in Milton, Rock County, Wisconsin where he was awarded a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1979. He was employed at the Kettle Moraine Correctional Institution.

Unmarried, James built a house in Plymouth, Wisconsin, and invited his parents, Laverne and Arthur Harmann, to live with him. Most of his brothers and sisters lived in the southern part of the state so the move brought them closer. James owned a couple of acres of land and gardens that required year-round attention. He made a wetland garden with water lilies; a woodland garden with special perennials; and also had a fruit tree orchard. Besides those, he had a large vegetable garden, but the most important to him was his wooded lot. He brought seedlings – more than 100 species native to Door County – to his property. It was thought that they would not grow in any other environment, but James proved that theory to be incorrect.

CHILDREN OF FRANK HENRY PROKASH AND VIRGINIA ISABELL EBERT

JUDITH ANN PROKASH (1944)
ROBERT ALFRED JOHNSON (1938)
DENNIS DAVID REIMER (1953)

Judith Ann Prokash, the first child and first daughter of Frank and Virginia Ebert Prokash, was born 25 August 1944 in St. Augustine, St. John's County, Florida. She attended Pulaski Grade School, Pulaski High School, and North Wisconsin Technical Institute in Green Bay where she studied nursing. She graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison with a bachelor's degree in nursing.

Judith recalled that when her mother died at an early age, her father demonstrated a commitment to family through his determination to keep the family of seven children together. He enlisted the help of his mother, Clara Yauger Prokash, who traveled some distance for many years to help raise the family.

On 18 January 1964, Judith married Robert Alfred Johnson in St. John's Lutheran Church, Pulaski, Brown County, Wisconsin. Robert, a son of Robert and Arvilla Bartz Johnson, was born 27 July 1938 in Oconto Falls, Oconto County, Wisconsin.

April 1968 in Oconto Falls; and Ryan Jason born 17 January 1974 in Green Bay, Brown County, Wisconsin.

Judith attributed her philosophy about life to her grandmother's straightforward direction. That initial positive training, based on the premise that, "life is what you make of it," provided the framework for Judith to build a busy life and accounts for the commendable manner in which she was able to raise three hard-working, talented, and productive children who would be respectable citizens and good parents to their children.

Judith and Robert Johnson divorced in July 1977. On 26 April 1979, she married Dennis David Reimer in Las Vegas, Clark County, Nevada. David, a son of Walter and Marge Neice Reimer, was born 6 February 1953 in Elgin, Kane County, Illinois.

Judith earned many honors and academic awards in her business profession with the Howard Johnson Company as an area sales manager; Hilton Hotels as an account executive; and as a nurse in emergency care and hospice. She was the president of the hospital auxiliary, owned several businesses, and was involved with numerous civic activities and fund raising organizations. She was involved in a business venture with her sons in the hope that she could assist them to become financially independent. Judith felt that to watch her children grow and succeed in life and knowing that she had a hand in supporting that endeavor would far surpass all of her other fleeting accomplishments. She said, "This achievement reaches the next generation – and the next – building the right character in our children will keep families and our country strong. Without that – nothing else really matters."

Judith and Dennis lived in Olathe, Kansas.

After graduation, she worked as a licensed practical nurse.

Tammy related that she had many fond memories of her grandparents, Alvin and Loretta Marquardt Heuer and told of summers spent at their house while she was growing up with, "...lots of work! Cherry picking and picking! Pitting cherries with bobby pins and making pies. Canning and freezing, making jam and pies, and raised baking! I miss those times more than I ever dreamed possible. Grandpa wasn't much for conversation but I loved to be around him. I still read and reread the many letters he and grandma sent over the years. Updates on the rain, the crops, and the temperature and recent news. I'm so glad I kept those letters."

On 29 June 1985, Tammy and Thomas Vincent Logelin married in Minneapolis. Thomas, the son of Raymond and Pauline Stansberry Logelin, was born 3 June 1955 in Minneapolis. Thomas worked as a carpenter and building contractor.

CHILDREN OF MARTIN FREDERICK HEUER AND RITA MAE PROKASH

MARTIN JOSEPH HEUER (1955)

KATHY JO MANUEL (1957)

Martin Joseph Heuer, the first child and oldest son of Martin and Rita Prokash Heuer, was born 21 November 1955 in the Baumholder Annex, U.S. Army Hospital, Neubrucke, Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany. Like all children born abroad to U.S. military personnel, he has a number of certificates of birth, the first being the one issued by the army hospital, which includes his left footprint. A German certificate, titled Geburtsurkunde, was issued by the Standesnamt (Registrar) of Kreis Birkenfeld in Baumholder. Another, Report of birth of Child Born Abroad of American Parent or Parents, was issued by the American Consulate General at Frankfurt am Main, Germany and sent to the Department of State in Washington, D.C. In spite of all these documents of birth of Martin to parents who were clearly U.S. citizens, one more step had to be taken to ensure there would be no question as to his U.S. citizenship. On 20 January 1961, Martin and his parents appeared before a Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization in Kansas City, Missouri and a Certificate of Citizenship No. AA-172113 was issued. This became his official birth certificate and established U.S. citizenship on the date of his birth. Martin was baptized in Chapel #1, Camp Baumholder, Germany on 18 December 1955, and his sponsors were his maternal uncle and aunt, James W. and Germaine Prokash Berkovitz. First Lieutenant Achilles R. and Connie Van De Meulebroecke witnessed the ceremony as proxies for the Berkovitz's.

Martin, better known as "Marty", attended grade schools in Fort Riley, Kansas; Fort Kobbe, Panama Canal Zone; Franklin Delano Roosevelt American School in Lima, Peru, South America; Fort Belvoir, Virginia; Holy Rosary Catholic School, Kewaunee, Wisconsin; and Mineral Wells, Texas. He attended high schools in West Bend and Eau Claire, Wisconsin, and graduated from Edina East High School, Edina, Minnesota in June 1974. After moving to Seminole, Pinellas County, Florida with his family later that year, he attended St. Petersburg Junior College.

In 1976, he began his career with Aide Services, Inc., the franchise of Manpower owned by his parents, starting as an auditor in the Tampa office. He then transferred to the St. Petersburg office where he was area manager with responsibility for the St. Petersburg and Clearwater branch offices and the technical division of the company. In 1981, he was promoted to vice president-operations and moved to the headquarters office in Tampa. He had twenty-five years tenure with Aide Services, Inc., in 2001.

On 26 September 1981, Martin and Kathy Jo Manuel married in Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church in Clearwater, Florida. Kathy was the daughter of Robert and Mary Elaine Greene Manuel, who were originally from Virginia and moved to Florida shortly after their marriage. Kathy was born 31 January 1957 in Clearwater, Pinellas County, Florida. Kathy graduated from Clearwater High School in 1976. Marty and Kathy made their home in Palm Harbor, Pinellas County, Florida.

Martin and Kathy had two children: Erica Elizabeth Ashley born 1 October 1984 and Stephaney Brook born 23 June 1986. Both were born in Clearwater. Martin and Kathy divorced 8 February 1994.

An accomplished drummer, Marty was a member of his high school bands, and he and his brother, Ronald, who played keyboard, formed four- and five-piece bands beginning in Eau Claire.

Their band played at the Right Guard lounge, school dances, the community center, and private parties in Eau Claire, Edina, and continued after they moved to Florida.

Still an avid drummer with a complete drum set he continued to play and upgrade, Marty joined the St. Petersburg Second Time A-Rounders Marching Band. The first band of its kind in the United States, it was organized in 1981 with members who ranged in age from twenty to eighty-four. The huge band had 542 members including the auxiliary units: flags, tall flags, rifles, majorettes, and banner and sign carriers. In great demand, the band practiced frequently and performed as a concert and marching band in parades and field shows. The band traveled to Ireland in March 2001 to participate in a weeklong St. Patrick's celebration which included parades and concerts.

Marty was active in Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church in Palm Harbor, serving as treasurer and on school fund-raising committees. He was also active in the Association of Manpower Franchise Owners. Marty was promoted to senior vice president in 1998. He made his home in Palm Harbor.

She worked all year long taking care of a neighbor's horses in return for free board for her horse, Heda. Kim trained her filly and went on to show her all over southern Wisconsin. She won many classes at the horse shows throughout the years. Kim's passion for showing her horse continued throughout her college years until she joined the U.S. Army Veterinary Corps in 1989.

Kim attended elementary, middle, and high school in Reedsburg, Sauk County, Wisconsin and graduated as an honor student from Webb High School in 1980 – third in her graduating class. During Kim's fourth year of veterinary school, she completed a six-week externship in Costa Rica at the veterinary school in San Jose, the capitol. She traveled extensively throughout the country with the Costa Rican veterinary students treating a variety of subsistence-type animals, mainly cattle and pigs. After returning from Costa Rica, Kim completed another externship at the animal hospital of Verona, just outside Madison.

She attended Elm Grove Lutheran School for grade kindergarten through eighth grade. In February of 1995, Stacey was awarded a bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering. She then began a one-year training program as an orthotic technician in White Bear Lake, Minnesota at Northeast Metro Technical College (NMTTC), which changed its name to Century College. Upon completion of the training program, she began work at Tamarack Habilitation Technologies, Incorporated.

Stacey related that Tamarack hired her for two jobs, one involved technician work related to the school she had just finished and her other responsibility was engineering research and design work on new product ideas. Although she had her sights set on returning to school for the Orthotic Practitioner Program in the fall of 1996, her employment with Tamarack and a promotion to a full-time engineering position proved to be too lucrative for her to dismiss. She postponed school for two consecutive years, continuing the full-time development work for Tamarack.

According to Stacey, orthotics is the medical profession responsible for designing, fabricating, and fitting devices that support the body. They dealt with cases as simple as a custom shoe insole or shoe modification and as complex as a reciprocating gait orthosis, which allowed a paraplegic to walk.

Joshua Walter Bauer, the only son of Jeffrey and Ann Paulick Bauer, was born 23 July 1972 in Glendale, Maricopa County, Arizona. He graduated from Trevor G. Browne High School on 30 May 1991. Three weeks after graduating from high school, he was shot and killed on 23 June 1991 in a drive-by shooting. He was just eighteen years old. The accident occurred as Josh was being driven home after playing pool at a friend's home. Josh and several of his friends were riding in a van when the occupants of another car pulled up in the lane beside them and shot at the van. No one in the van was familiar with the gunman and the reason for the assault was unknown. Josh, sitting in the middle of the front seat, was the only one in the van hit. The bullet went through the lung, heart, and lodged in his hip. Although Josh was rushed to a trauma center, he had little chance for survival. A police helicopter near the scene was dispatched and the gunman was tracked to a relative's house where he was arrested within minutes of committing the crime. The Phoenix man was found guilty of second-degree murder in the shooting death of Joshua.

Funeral services were conducted from the Chapel of the Chimes Mortuary in Glendale and he was interred in Resthaven Park Cemetery. When Josh died, his mother, Ann, lost her only son and child, and his grandmother, Delores, lost her only grandson. Gone were the dreams of an all-American, six-foot three-inch blond young man from Glendale, Arizona who had planned to attend college that fall. Josh was sadly missed by his family and friends. His grandmother, Delores Paulick, lovingly wrote of his death, "...I guess the Lord wanted him home and away from this cruel world."

CORY ALAN THRONSON (1972 - 1989)

Cory Alan Thronson, the second child and only son of Sherman and Lois Buechner Thronson, was born 18 April 1972 in South Haven, Van Buren County, Michigan. He was baptized in St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Forestville, Wisconsin on 27 May 1972. Sponsors were Karen Buechner and Terry Buechner, his maternal aunt and uncle.

Cory and three other Mishicot High School students died in a weekend tragedy on Harpt's Lake in northern Manitowoc County on Sunday, 5 February 1989.

Lethal carbon monoxide fumes were blamed for the deaths of the teenagers who were staying overnight in a small fishing shack and were overcome by fumes from two portable propane heaters and a propane hot plate they left running in the shack. They had been participating in an ice-fishing derby sponsored by the Larrabee Sportsmen's Club. Many of the participants stayed on the lake overnight in their shanties and others stayed in cars as the temperatures dipped below zero. The wooden shanty was one of more than fifty such shelters on the frozen seventy-acre lake.

Victims included Scott Novak, seventeen, son of Kenneth and Mary Novak, 2824 Two Creeks Road, Mishicot; Cory A. Thronson, sixteen, 1004 Tapawingo Road, Mishicot; Shawn Shoulak, sixteen, a son of Larry and Kathy Shoulak, 5125 Hwy. 147 West, Maribel; and Sarah J. Koller, sixteen, a daughter of David and Sandy Koller, Mishicot.

The victims were found about 6:30 a.m. Sunday approximately three hours after they were last seen awake. Mr. Koller was in a shack next door to the one of the victims and tried mouth-to-mouth resuscitation after Sarah's brother, Scott, and another friend found the teenagers.

Sarah and Cory Thronson were distantly related. Cory was a great-great-grandson of Augusta Heuer Raether and Sarah was a great-great-great-granddaughter of Ferdinand Heuer. Augusta and Ferdinand were brother and sister, both children of our family progenitor, Johann Friedrich Heuer.
